1998 Data Protection Act

All data is held securely in the College's Alumni & Development Office and will be treated confidentially and with sensitivity for the benefit of Trinity Hall and its members. Selected data is available to the University, and occasionally to recognised alumni societies and volunteers, College Clubs, and agents contracted by the College for specific alumni-related projects. Data is used for a full range of alumni activities, including sending of College publications, the promotion of benefits and services to members, the notification of members' events and the raising of funds for Trinity Hall, all of which might include an element of direct marketing. Under the terms of the 1998 Data Protection Act you have the right to object to the use of your data for any of these purposes.
